Welcome to the Transnational Hackmeeting!
Here are some bits of information you need to know when joining the transhackmeeting process, so that it can be a pleasant and enriching experience for all!

MAKING IT HAPPEN

```
$ chmod a+x thk.sh && ./thk.sh

THK is a self-managed gathering, which relies on the active participation of all. Organisation is meant to be an open and transparent process, allowing everyone to take part through collective discussions and horizontal decision-making. Thus all participants are kindly invited to join thk assemblies, that are to happen everyday at 8pm.

Collective structures & tasks such as welcome infopoint, human DHCP, cleaning, food processing and whatever needs to be done... depend on everyone's participation! Please register for shifts, by adding yourself to the planning posters, available in the Level 0 corridor next to transhack café.
